The Attorney Generalship.

The committee at Lawrenceburg last Tuesday made two mistakes. They should have called a primary election instead of a convention, and they should have called it earlier than they did. They should have had a primary election, because that would have settled the question; whereas another convention may not. They should have called it earlier, because the nominee, whoever he may be, will have no walk over, and ought to have time to canvass the district. He cannot do it in a time now given him.

However, since a convention has been called, Maury County will go to it with 32 votes for Snider. And those 32 votes will stay with Mr. Snider just as long as they think right and proper.

Mr. Boyd and his friends who are so fond of inflaming the little counties against the big and rich and aristocratic county of Maury, may take what we say and charge it to Maury and Maury's candidate, Mr. Snider, and inflame to their heart's content. We mean to tell them very plainly that Maury County and its people are opposed to the nomination of Mr. Boyd.

That opposition to the Hon. Mr. Frank Boyd is not because he comes from one of the smaller counties, for Judge Patterson does that. It is not because he does not come from Maury; for neither do Judge Wilke, Patterson or Abernathy. But simply because Mr. Boyd's friends and papers—not to say Mr. Boyd himself—have abused Maury County and Maury County men and Maury County method, and so misrepresents the county and its people, have inflamed such little, mean and contemptible jealousies and circulated such malicious slanders, that Maury County does not propose ever, until a party nomination demands it, to endorse a candidacy made upon such a plane.

Hoping the lower counties could appreciate open, fair dealing, we endorsed their candidate for Circuit Judge, unconditionally. That was a tender of the olive branch, made in all fairness and perfect good faith Maury has fought for its own sons in the past, but never against any county; we have inflamed no prejudice; talked no prejudice; had no prejudice. We had hope and expected that by a free voluntary instruction for the sons of other counties, to dissipate the prejudice engendered by past campaigns, and have an harmonious preference for the best, hereafter they are welcome to all they can get, without assistance from Maury.

Mr. Snider was the strongest first choice candidate before the last Lawrenceburg convention. He led on the first ballot and continued in the lead until Mr. Jones arranged to throw his strength to Mr. Boyd, and withdrew his own name. Jones' and Boyd's strength combined was a few votes greater than Snider's, but Snider's first choice vote was greater than that of either of them.

He will go before the next convention not only as strong, we think stronger, but with the confidence upon the part of the thoughtful of the honest, fair minded Democrats of Giles, to do the fair thing by Maury and the only safe thing for the ticket. We believe the vote of Giles is for the "bloody shirt" argument; we know they may.

concede that Maury, having nothing, is entitled to one of the many offices in this Judicial, Congressional, Senatorial and Floatorial districts; they have worthy sons in Giles; we do not see why they should prejudice their high aspirations and future ambitions, and we do not believe they will.—Columbia Herald.

We publish the above editorial from the Columbia Herald, and as to the truth of Mr. Boyd's friends and papers—not to say Mr. Boyd himself—have abused Maury county men and Maury county methods. We leave it to the good people of this and adjoining counties to question the truth of.

But for the paper of Mr. Boyd's we can speak. The Lawrence Democrat has never yet had one harsh word against Mr. Snider or his politics, and that he and Maury county men have been abused down in this lower county is news to us, and if Mr. Snider receives the nomination he will be supported by the Democrats of Lawrence county. But if we accept the insinuations that the Herald makes in the above article, Maury will do no such thing, but we won't take the Herald's word for this, we believe Maury will do the fair thing if Mr. Boyd is nominated. That the Herald means a good portion of the "inflammatory" part of its article for the LAWRENCE DEMOCRAT we are aware, but this is not true, we have never tried to inflame any one against Mr. Snider. That we are for Frank Boyd we do not deny, that Lawrence county is for him has been shown and that he will be nominated regardless of whether the Herald helps to elect him, will be shown. And we don't think the Herald can persuade Maury county to block the convention either.

FERSE, TART AND TIMELY
Captain Mahan, of the U. S. S. Chicago, should keep his weather eye on himself to see that the "tally" of royalty, which is being so liberally bestowed upon him, does not give him a bad case of the big-head before he returns to the United States.

If kissing breeds and spreads disease, as the Board of Health of Orange, N. J., has officially declared, there are lots of fellows hereabouts who are willing to take big chances as long as they are allowed to select the kisses.

"Calico Charley" Foster must be feeling his oats again. He has accepted an invitation to deliver a fourth of July oration.

Our forefathers worked with their rifles strapped across their shoulders in order to protect their lives. Are we to see that custom revived.

The New York Herald is playing with fire in trying to encourage, for advertising purposes, a religious controversy over Zola's story, now running in syndicate of American paper including the Herald.

Gen. Weaver will try to go to Congress from one of the Iowa districts. Congress will have our sympathy, if he succeeds.

The Senate investigation committee would have saved time and annoyance by laying on the table indefinitely the old question concerning the right of Congress to compel a newspaper man to tell the source of confidential information, and going ahead with the investigation.

The report that ex-Czar Reed is trying to get up a flirtation with the silver goddess, for campaign use, probably emanates from some Harrison or McKinley man.

It will be a sorry day for the labor organizations of this country when they pass under control of the socialists. Socialism has nothing in common with honest labor.

The professional rain-makers are hot after the endorsement of Secretary Morton, but, in view of the experiments made under the last administration, none of them are likely to get it.

The city council of El Paso, Tex., is the latest body to attempt to regulate by legislation the dressing of women. It will be strange if its prohibition of the divided skirt does not result in a boom for that article in El Paso.

Now it is said that the Goulds are going to live in England and compete with W. W. Astor for the extravagant expenditure championship. We can stand it if England can.

Demagogues who are taking advantage of the present condition of affairs in industrial circles to increase the discontent will promptly put forward the didn't-know-it-was-loaded plea if the result be serious trouble.

A socialist is a fellow who has nothing and wants the fellow who has something to divide with him, and wants a new division every time he gets rid of the proceeds of the previous one.

Thos. J. Brady, of Star route notoriety, has been elected Mayor of a Virginia village. The residents of that city may expect either a boom or bankruptcy.

The Chinese are trying to keep up with the procession. Washington has a laundryman who advertises in the newspapers.

Somebody wants to know why so many Republican clubs are being organized in Kentucky? To "work" wealthy republicans in other states, who are gullible enough to put up good money for moonshine. Next!

Call for Meeting of The Democratic Executive Committee.

Springers Station.

Editor DEMOCRAT.

Will you give me space in your paper to give your many readers a few dots from this part of Gods moral vineyard. In the first place I wish to apologise to Christopher Columbus, for the mistake in the lemonade at the brand dance, the failure being attributed to the fact that the lemons had frozen without his knowledge or consent, and this being unexpected to him, and he being unprepared with a nut cracker, but instead had a lemon squeezer with which to manufacture the raw material, hence the failure. The neighborhood was blessed on last Sabbath with three sermons, one at Fallers Chapel, by Rev. S. M. Beasley and one at the new Christian church at Springers Station by Rev. Spivy and one at Pleasant Point by Rev. T. J. Baker, who comes to fill out the unexpired time of Rev. J. W. Huat, who was called home from this field for causes unavoidable and who gained a sacred spot in the hearts of our people.

Brother Ashford will preach at Pleasant Point next Sunday at 3 p.m. Everybody come.
